refusal of the existing conditions was already to be glimpsed in Like so, the mega-machine that has always presented itself to the multiplicity of diffuse practices which the youth of this region us as the guarantor of our survival and future, permanently have come to demonstrate since many years ago already. But, recreated by the advertisements on the television and the to pinpoint the theme which concerns us here, it was at the internet, appeared in everyone's eves to be that fraud to which high-schools where this intransigent refusal prefigured, better we had been grudgingly subjected and which we would have than in other places, the rupture that was to come which would broken very long ago if we had only received the push that we sweep away the everyday normalcy as we had known it up needed. until then. Prior to the upheaval this refusal was demonstrated for a long time in the disruptive and anti-police violence in The spontaneous action, at times so vilified, demonstrated that which hundreds of youths organized themselves to take to the what, seemingly, we didn't consciously comprehend entirely streets, block transit and confront the police with diffuse had always been there, latently, as an intuition, and that all what demands or, rather, without any demand in particular but the was needed were the practical conditions that favored a revolt subversion of the existing order itself.

bourgeoisie pointed out that they were not directly affected by the transport fare hike, it was the youth of those same adopt the only lucid attitude in the face of the misery and the precarization to which local Capital subjects us every day. These young people, endowed with the vouth and the courage that they had already acquired through struggle, be it through organizing themselves to face off against the police, or in spontaneous

Even when the discourse of the It is in its practical particularity nor is it inserted from without, but it that the sense of violence resides, be it by defending a high-schools who began to organize to demonstration or by displaying hadri withesed the massiveness of the refusal towards social domination through acts. And it's from this perspective, in its practical dimension, that the violence must be weighed.

action that meant resisting, all together, against the entrance of What came later, like the necessity of organization, the the cops into their high-schools; reunited thanks to this struggle propaganda, the territorial assemblies, etc., appeared after this with their sense of community and the confirmation of their own first confirmation. power, feeling themselves to be capable of everything, decided to organize to do tangibly that which the common sense of the These conclusions are not at all intended to substitute what the majority could only do in the imagination: massive evasion of proletarian youth could say for themselves about their actions, fare-paying in the most complex and secured public transport since they have been sufficiently eloquent in making the in Santiago, which millions of people were obliged to pay daily. content explicit by the acts themselves. And the thing is that Only a few days later, the recognition of that same power and the revolutions and revolts are always a clarification through sense of community would radiate throughout the entire class. actions of the previously existing problems and contradictions

That consciousness which those entrenched in the old leftist conclusions that Capital and its agents extract from this, we will traditions so sorely missed, was soon manifested everywhere let the economists cry over their millions in losses, and the citywith a violent eruption which brought back to the scene those planners mourn the destruction of their uninhabitable sceneries, who had never really gone away, since their existence will we will let the contract thinkers seek the apparent reasons for endure as long as class society exists, the class to inherit the what to them appears to be the absurdity of the revolt, and let exploitation of all epochs: the proletariat and its youth. And, conservatives of all types suffer for the churches and temples even if it's certain that it was the initiative of the secondary which now do indeed illuminate; the bourgeoisie and their school students which lit the match that only a few days later armed lackeys, little by little, are comprehending the principal would detonate the capitalist normality, the youth who have reason that they have to fear us: we have become conscious protagonized the revolt are immensely more ample than the of the fact that we are the force that moves this society and mere studentry, secondary school and university students that, as such, we are its mortal menace. included. Rather, it has been an ample spectrum of vouths youngest among the proletariat, for whom there is neither a not only to justify the rebels, but also contribute to clarifying future nor certainties under these conditions of existence.

in the outbreak of the revolt; soon, the acts of the vouths particularity that the sense of violence resides, be it by seemed to evince that it had been understood from the defending a demonstration or by displaying the refusal towards beginning that this order of things was worthy of no more than social domination through acts. And it's from this perspective, scom; that the police are not there to protect us, but that we in its practical dimension, that the violence must be weighed. protect each other when we act against them; that public transport doesn't exist in order to make our lives easier but that It's not necessary to make apologia for the violence to admit it forms a part of the machinery that plunges us into inertia and that a large part of it, which soon will appear evident, was servitude; that there is nothing honorable about paying for the thanks to the sparks of young and proletarian violence that commodities that permitted consumption offers us, but that we seemed to illuminate that which for a long time we seemed to recover a part of what they rob from us every day when we loot have intuitively known to be part of the problem. Like so, the it; that the progress that they tell us about is not for us, but it's resignation only needs a spark in order to transform this the progress of capital at our expense; that solidarity, which passive scorn into an open offensive against the violence that until recently was unknown to us in practice, permits us the they impose on us and which, from now on, we will return in collective appropriation of a world that was removed from us, their faces. and shows us now that anything is possible when we act jointly.

of this breadth in order to put them afloat. Because consciousness is not merely theoretical must arise from the practice of struggle itself. None of us would have foreseen the magnitude of this refusal if we the struggle in the street, of the looting, the symbols of power being vandalized. etc., nor would we have confirmed the communitarian potential that lives within us without having experienced its emergence stemming exactly from these actions, carried out mainly by the proletarian youth.

of the societies against which they emerge. With respect to the who we had mentioned at the beginning: all of the the For our part, we believe that the role of a publication like this is their reasons: to theoretically elucidate the truth already This consciousness has shown to be more present than ever contained in their practical activity. It is in its practical

NOW THERE'S NO TURNING BACK

A BULLETIN OF REFLECTIONS ABOUT THE REVOLT

YA NO HAY VUELTA ATRÁS N.2 / FEBRUARY 2020 NOHAYVUELTA ATRAS@RISEUP.NET

NOTES ON THE REVOLUTION TO COMMENCE burying or concealing it by ideologues of categories and identities. every ilk or the governing castes in power. A multitude of conflicts, which 2. By spontaneity we don't mean that ideologically fixed horizon. place the vital interests of an exploited the movement which negates the humanity in opposition to those of the State/Capital arises from the void, or that 3. In Chile, this proliferation of social capitalist class, spring up constantly and it lacks consciousness or a specific conflicts, though indeed its frequency spontaneously all over. However, there organization, but on the contrary, that it and force had notably increased during are periods in which these conflicts break arises from the bosom of the current certain periods, hadn't shaped into a

1. The class struggle, that is, the out with an unusual intensity, allowing a society, without the necessity of or rather manifestation of antagonistic interests glimpse of their authentic class character, in spite of and against would be leaders, within the society, never ceased to exist after years in which that character helmsmen or political parties which, iust nor to dig into the foundations of this appeared to have been diluted into as so many social-democratic sects had system of death, for all the zeal put into dozens of sociologized and parceled and do profess to do, would inject "socialist" consciousness "from without" in order to "conduct it" towards an movement that had insurrectional rejection of all the misery produced by production. Yet at the same time, the characteristics. Upheavals that were Capital evident. started by student protests (2001, 2005-6, 2011) were the experiences most similar to those that we saw this last October 18th. Massive and extensive days of protest, which included the that dispersed the thick smoke takeover and paralyzation of activities in educational precincts (mainly in universities and high schools), managed to generate sympathy and solidarity from the rest of the class, but without transcending the sectional borders or overcomina the bureaucratic maneuverings (mainly by the CONFECH in the student context, and the CUT in the terrain of the traditional unions). Even so, it's the adolescent and youth proletariat - fundamentally the secondary school students- who show themselves to be less easy to domesticate. furthermore transcending their own limits as "youth" as a parcel artificially separated from the class.

4. It was precisely in 2019, stemming from the punctual rejection of legal against this sector of the proletariat, as through the proposal for identification increase, which would lead to daily confrontations against the police repression at the Instituto Nacional, in the youth. The struggle, far from easing up, considered to be dead or definitively defeated.

developed in Ecuador a few weeks before against a series of governmental measures that made life in general more expensive, exploded on that historical Friday the 18th, after a week of massive evasions in the metro initiated by secondary school students.

6. The snowball would not be stopped and it transformed with surprising velocity into a gigantic avalanche. By the second day, all the cities of the country saw their streets filled with with furious demonstrators that were in solidarity with their siblings in the capital, but at the same time, showed that the fare increase was only the spark that unleashed this impressive blaze. "It's not 30 pesos, it's 30 years", "Chile awaken", and "Until life is worth living", are some of the most prominent slogans that resonate in the days of the revolt, making the general

Therefore yes, on the 18th of October it was the proletariat of the capitalist society. Far from a discourse of a supposed transversality that would unite us as 'chileans'. 'citizens'. or supposed 'minorities', agglutinated precisely in the function of their fragmentation. the movement generated from the upheaval expressed a clearly proletarian content, of explicit rejection of Capital.

7. Is it a proletarian revolt? For many, to consider it as such are not few: tend to (increasingly less, in any case) much through the 'Aula Segura' law as use these words in their political language, are sects derived from socialrigid schematics, dogmatic and unfit. But based on exploitation. here it's not a matter of neat definitions, very center of the capital, resulting in but of comprehending the basic and various incidents of police brutality and essential elements that allow us to their corresponding response from the explain our historical moment. The movement of generalized refusal has proletariat is composed of the immense went on to change and to mature. From human mass that must sell their physical an initial rage lucidly directed against the and determination contagiously and mental force to the capitalist class in state and capitalist infrastructure, throughout a whole class that many had order to obtain the minimum that allows including the sacking of commercial them to reproduce as manpower and centers such as the big pharmacy, invigorate the consumption of supermarket and retail store chains, and commodities. We are the social class despised state institutions, such as the that puts the productive gears of the COMPIN (which is in charge of paying for

5. The proletariat, strongly animated animated capitalist economy in motion, but neither medical leave), various municipal even further by the movement that had possess nor control the means of buildings, toll points, monuments and proletariat only exists when it becomes conscious of its condition and struggles for its liberation, that is, its self-abolition, by attacking the social relations and institutions that keep it dominated and through the affirmation of its truly human interests, neither defined nor mediated by mercantile necessities.

8. Therefore yes, on the 18th of October it was the proletariat that dispersed the thick smoke of the capitalist society. Far from a discourse of a supposed transversality that would unite us as 'chileans', 'citizens', or supposed 'minorities', agglutinated precisely in the function of their fragmentation, the movement generated from the upheaval expressed a clearly proletarian content, of explicit rejection of Capital.

To affirm this, on the other hand, has nothing to do with promoting a schematic and reductionist reading of the conflict. speak of the "proletariat" could sound There are social relations of domination vintage or doctrinaire. And the reasons to that uphold and create other forms of exploitation, and the radical and integral strategies that toughened the repression unfortunately, those who used to and confrontation against Capital requires a simultaneous and effective attack against all of them, since it is that framework which sustains the current misery. It's checks on minors by the police, that the democracy, or their equivalent variants in impossible to dissociate the State from combativity of the students continued to "official" anarchism, that reduce Capital and from the patriarchal relations revolutionary theory and its concepts to that allow the subsistence of this society

9. In a few weeks this explosive statues that pay homage to heroes of the odious condemnation of the whole Party streets. The State will not exercise a bourgeoisie and the colonial looting, etc., of Order, from the right to the left. it went on rapidly to the shaping of coordinate, and to fortify themselves. form in which this is expressed. Furthermore, the forms of street protest are also developing in order to be able to confront an increasingly deranged police 11. The nationalist discourse, the repression looting of the waters perpetrated by many which will end up weakening and boycott of the testing proceedings of the concretely confront them. University Selection Test, which after σ

σ

• ----

W

ΩΩ

Ο

О

S

L

autonomous organisms in the territories, 10, Overall, there are a whole series of by the defense of the administrative the Territorial Assemblies, that obstacles and limitations which our coordinated different aspects of the movement crashes up against, and maintain the revolt of the second; when social struggle at this level, experiences which are related precisely to the lack of the very "economic development of the force, a prominent example being the necessary rejection of politics which wound on the capitalist normality that it organization of the first-aid teams, which sometimes gets confused with a scorn will have trouble completely healing. From provide vital aid in the very center of the for revolutionary theory and for our history an imposing initial revolt, we are now confrontations with the forces of of combat as a class, and above all, the going through a moment which appears lack of critique of democracy, which In the same context of the revolt, there brought many to celebrate the plebiscite also sprout up experiences of struggles of the 26th of April agreed on by the arrival of a revolutionary process itself. which are more specific that are notably Party of Order, in order to cool down the amplified, like the denunciation of the fever of the movement, constitute flanks vears of being targeted by critiques 12. This weakening and defeat coming mainly from the secondary happens precisely by separating the school students' movement, was finally sectors that still believe in these statist dealt its death blow in 2020, not without and democratic paths from the rest of the this action having earlier received the movement that would refuse to leave the human community based on solidarity massacre of greater proportions until the movement finds itself effectively fractured "gains" of the first and the necessity to that still continue to expand, to clarify about its class content, and the country" which the Party of Order takes shelter in is put into question.

13. The 18th of October inflicted such a deeply disrupted, which glimpses the But let's not fool ourselves, the crisis and defeat of Capital always corresponds in the end to our very own struggle to types of industries, or the massive defeating us if we don't explicitly and emancipate ourselves completely and definitely from our exploited condition.

> 14. Therefore, it depends on us, as the exploited class, as the proletarian class, to go beyond the dismal horizons fixed by the capitalist society and to construct a and free from all exploitation.

Since the explosion of revolt that shook this territory of stability on which to situate themselves.¹This translates into on the 18th of October of the last year, and which increasingly more precarious and unstable jobs for the still continues to shake it up sporadically up to proletariat in general, but especially for the youth; into millions of today, it has become undeniable that what young professionals incapable of selling their specialized labor unleashed the paralysis of the large part of the force and obliged to do whatever kind of work; into a situation infrastructure of capitalist normality was the unfurling where the only way that a proletarian youth can secure a roof of a massive and unusual violence; over their head is by cohabiting with others in similar conditions

Violence which our class as a whole has unfurled. to their own, since neither their income nor the cost of their However, though indeed it has been our class habitat allows them to live even minimally similar to the way that which has flooded the streets, confronted the their parents did at their age. police and thwarted the mechanisms that allowed its preamble, is unquestionable.

S passiveness and resignation of the supposed possible future. maturity typical to adulthood, that the supposed

0 basis of that, to materially secure their existence. In healthy and intransioent refusal, that had assured past generations with a minimum .

the uninterrupted functionality of our everyday With distinct shades and particularities, the conditions which servitude, the key role that the proletarian youth has had served before as a justification for the existence of had, as much in the development of the revolt as in capitalist exploitation, since they provided the comfort and sustenance for those who would integrate with it, went up in smoke around the world. Added to that, the increasingly more Dominant ideology tells us so often that rebellion is evident and progressive deterioration of the biosphere -itself a a typical reaction of the youth against the order of product of the capitalist devastation-, could do no more than the adults, a stage which will be followed by the add to the perspective of the youth that for them there is no relation between youth and rebellion is well known. This progressive precarization of the vital conditions of the Nevertheless, the truth is that, in a way that youngest proletarians makes itself so much more brutally escapes the bourgeois comprehension of society evident in countries like Chile. If we add the growing and the world, this old premise is particularly precarization of the youth to the precarious condition which accurate for the youth of our era. And the thing is characterized the proletarian families of the past generations in that, in order to invigorate its existence throughout this region, any perspective for a future in these same time and perpetuate its reproduction, Capital has conditions goes up in smoke. This being so, to the bourgeois put an end to many of the material conditions that farce of the future and its ideology of effort and of the allowed the exploited from 15 or 30 years ago to compensation for sacrifice, which intended to make of the form themselves as a labor force and integrate with youth the fuel with which to continue invigorating the decadent a certain success into the labor market and, on the capitalist machine, the proletarian youth responded with a

other words, today Capital is incapable of providing For those of us who pay attention to the dynamic of capitalist its youngest labor force with the same conditions reproduction and the class struggle linked to it, this mass

> 1. This is due, in a large part, to the fact that the constant technological revolutions which capital develops, in its incessant search to appropriate human labor and convert it into profit, has ended up creating an ever increasing number of "excess" humans. That is to say, human beings who are not necessary for capital and who, in fact, encumber it.